For sale in Kehidakustány, a popular village of Zala county, in the neighbourhood of Kehida Thermal Spa and Experience Spa, a 3 bedroom brick house to be renovated.

The wooden-ceilinged house has a gross floor area of 98 sqm, but the living space can be easily expanded, as the separate entrance, but also accessible from the living space on the basement level is possible to create 3 more rooms, so even several generations can live together.

From the terrace, entering through the double wooden front door, you enter a large hallway with two rooms on the left and one room on the right. Also from the entrance hall you can access the kitchen, from where you can find a pantry and a large bathroom. The doors and windows are the original wooden ones.

The house is heated by an individual fireplace, the hot water is supplied by an electric boiler.

The water, sewer and electricity are in the house, the gas connection is in the street. Industrial electricity 380 V (3 phase, 20 amps) is also available.

The house is in excellent structural condition, does not leak, but needs to be renovated by the new owner. Thanks ...
